

LEARNING IN RETIREMENT

The Learning Times

Special Edition

Fall 2016

PREVIEW OF THINGS TO COME

Welcome to our first issue of The Learning Times, "Special Edition". We hope that you find this newsletter informative, timely and helpful in future planning. These spring and fall special editions will provide current information that will keep members informed about events, trip openings, course vacancies and special interest club availability. Special announcements concerning upcoming events that require a registration and/or RSVP may also be included. (Please note Holiday Social invite in this issue.) This "special edition" newsletter will be mailed to each household so that ALL our members can receive timely information about LIR activities. Included in this issue is a preview of some planned activities for 2017 – celebrating our 25th year as an organization!

Please note that the "special edition" is designed to supplement our winter and summer newsletters and allows us another avenue for communication.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN WITH LIR TRAVEL NOTES...

FIRST TRIP of 2017
(Rescheduled from 2016)

The LIR rescheduled "trip" to Shikles Auditorium for the Capital City Players presentation of "Hands On A Hard Body" — an all-American musical that tells the story of a small-town Texas endurance contest is planned for Sunday, February 12, 2017. If you are interested call the LIR office promptly (573-681-6152).

FROM THE TRAVEL
ARCHIVES OF LIR ...

Two trips are being offered during the spring / summer 2017 travel session that are from previous years. They were favorites then and are sure to be favorites once more.

April 20, 2017 – Disney's Lion King
at the FOX – a matinee

May 23-25, 2017- St. Joseph - 2 nights/3 days. A combination of previous sites and "new venues and sites" not visited before. We plan to visit the Glore Psychiatric Museum, Mt. Mora Cemetery, Walter Cronkite Memorial, Tobiasons Stained Glass Studio, Indoor Sports Complex (Chiefs Training Camp), and of course, Patee House Museum/Jesse James Home/Pony Express Museum.
