D. SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

Submit the following documents, if applicable. These are suggested items that may help us make a determination regarding your dependency status. We reserve the right to ask for additional documentation verifying support.

- Legal court documents
- Health Insurance Card in your name for the dependent(s)
- Documentation of housing (lease/utility bill/etc.) showing dependent(s) in household
- Occupancy permit including dependent(s)
- Day care provider information and documentation of payments made by you for the dependent(s)
- Documentation of TANF/WIC/SNAP or other federally subsidized programs in your name for the dependent(s)
- Documentation of child support received/paid

PLEASE BE ADVISED: If the student is receiving support to raise his/her child, is the child still considered a legal dependent? If one or both of the student's parents are directly or indirectly providing more than 50% support in cash or other assistance to the child, then the student would answer "No" to the FAFSA question about legal dependents. "Indirect support" to the child includes support that a parent gives to the student on behalf of the child. If the student is living with a parent who is paying for most of the household expenses, the parent would usually be considered the primary source of support to the child, and the student would answer "No" to the question about legal dependents. However, there may be some cases where the student can demonstrate that she provides more than half of her child's support even while living at home, in which case she would answer "Yes" to the question about legal dependents.
