My Fair Lady

Stages Theatre - Kirkwood, Missouri
September 15, 2013

The thrilling transformation of a pauper flower girl into a ravishing upper class lady has thrilled audiences for over 50 years. Remember Rex Harrison as linguist Professor Henry Higgins and Audrey Hepburn as Eliza Doolittle in the 1964 screen version of the Broadway play?

With gorgeous ballads as "I Could Have Danced All Night", "On the Street Where You Live" and many others, Lerner and Loewe's "My Fair Lady" is one of the great literary classics in grand musical theatre.

After the Theatre presentation we will have dinner at the Jefferson Grill in Kirkwood.

Due with registration: $ 50.00 Final payment $ 54.00, due Aug. 15, 2013

Departure Time: 10:30 a.m. Return at 8:30 p.m. (est.)

Southeast Missouri in the Fall

Missouri Springs and Historic Arcadia Valley
September 24-25, 2013

You won't want to miss this tour of many beautiful Springs in Missouri and the historical Arcadia Valley. Do register early for this two day trip highlighting our beautiful state.

We embark early morning for our adventures to assure ample time to visit all locations on this zealous itinerary. Day I stops include 1st, Meramec Spring Park where the park naturalist will present an overview and we will enjoy the Visitors Center exhibits before viewing the Spring. Stop #2 is Round Spring, located near Eminence, one of the first Missouri State Parks. We will enjoy a box lunch at the pavilion before motoring to Alley Springs, our 3rd stop. Here, in addition to the Springs, we will have a guided tour of Alley Mill by National Park Service staff. Stop #4 is Big Springs, Missouri's largest Spring and the largest fresh water Spring in the United States. This is our last scheduled tour stop for the day before arriving at Hampton Inn, Farmington. After 'check-in', a group buffet dinner is scheduled at Roseners in Farmington.

Day II (Wednesday) begins with a continental breakfast at the hotel followed by our 1st stop at Missouri Mines State Historic Site. Following a brief orientation we view the early 1900's lead mining equipment and tour the mineral museum located at the Site. Stop #2 is Elephant Rocks State Park where we will have the opportunity to walk the mile long Braille Trail and/or climb the rocks, all optional of course. Stop #3 will be a buffet lunch in Ironton at "Thee Abbey Kitchen" located on the former site of the Ursuline Academy. A short tour of the beautiful chapel is included at this stop.

Following lunch we stop briefly at Taum Sauk Mountain State Park (highest point in Missouri) and then motor to Johnson's Shut-Ins State Park. After visiting this state landmark, we are homeward bound with a rest break at a fast food restaurant along the way.

This trip involves lots of walking; comfortable walking shoes are recommended. Many resting places are available in the parks to relax and enjoy the scenery should this be your choice. Also, bring rain gear as we plan to go rain or shine.

Have a Memphis Experience

October 15, 16, 17, 18, 2013

Welcome to Memphis--Perched above the Mississippi River, Memphis welcomes visitors to celebrate the city that gave the world blues, soul and rock 'n roll music as well as to chow down in the unrivaled barbecue capitol of the nation. Planned for your enjoyment we will spend our time visiting many of the city's well known attractions. After our arrival in the city we get a taste of the 'Sound of Memphis' through a guided tour of Gibson Guitar Factory. We will see and hear how by cutting, binding, neck-fitting, buffing and tuning, Gibson has helped make the world of music what it is today. You are 'on your own' this evening to stroll down Beale Street in the heart of downtown Memphis and enjoy the music spilling out of clubs and restaurants. Lodging will be at Hyatt Place on Primacy Parkway for our three night Memphis stay.

Day II – Following a Continental Breakfast at the hotel, a professional step-on guide will help us discover this gracious old Southern City, a restless metropolis of riverboats, the cotton trade, and the resulting money. After lunch we take that unforgettable journey through the most famous rock 'n roll residence in the world, Graceland. Our Platinum Tour includes the audio guided tour of 'Graceland Mansion and Grounds', entrance to the 'Automobile Museum', 'Custom Jets, Elvis Hawaii: Concerts, Movies and More Exhibit' and lastly, 'Elvis: Live from Vegas Exhibit'. Following our Graceland tour, there will be a group dinner at Marlowe's - a restaurant loaded with Elvis memorabilia, and famous for its BBQ and other menu selections.

Day III – Today's touring begins at the National Civil Rights Museum, an amazing museum sharing the past, present and hopeful future for civil rights. The museum is built on the site where Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated. At our next stop, Sun Studio, the "Birthplace of Rock 'N' Roll", a guided tour offers a touch of Elvis' first microphone and the real history of the studio that launched Elvis Presley, Johnny Cash, B.B. King and more. They say (quote)..... "The Tour Gives You Goosebumps". Lunch will be at 'Central BBQ' followed by an afternoon at Mud Island River Park and Museum. The on-sight Museum features eighteen galleries and showcases a five block long replica of the lower Mississippi River, their "Claim to Fame". The evening is yours to enjoy as you like.

Day IV – "Memphis Pink Palace Museum" tour is first-on- the- list of our final day in this fascinating city. The Pink Palace, a regional national history, science and cultural museum, a theater and restaurant are all located under one roof. Favorites include the shrunken head, a replica of the first Piggly Wiggly grocery store and the hand-carved miniature circus. The museum's "Claim to Fame" is that it is Tennessee's most visited Museum! As we begin our journey home, one last stop at the National Ornamental Museum completes our Memphis itinerary. This "National Treasure" is devoted exclusively to the promotion of fine metalwork. We will see works of art and artists at work, learn the craft and explore the beautiful grounds where we can discover hidden treasures and amazing river views.

Plan on a fun time in a city overflowing with southern hospitality!

Sister Act

Kansas City Music Hall
January 26, 2014

Sister Act, Broadway's "Ridiculous Fun" comedy, tells the story of a wanabe diva whose life takes a surprising turn when she witnesses a crime and cops hide her in the last place anyone would expect—a convent. Sister Act is a reason to 'REJOICE' and a sparkling tribute to the universal power of friendship. It features music by eight-time Oscar-winner, Alan Menken whose other works include the music for Beauty and the Beast and the Little Mermaid.

After the performance we'll enjoy a buffet dinner at Fiorella's Jack Stack BBQ, one of Kansas City's finest BBQ restaurants.

IF you want to escape the January doldrums, this should do it! Join all our LIR friends and enjoy the camaraderie, theatre and the best BBQ in Kansas City for this first trip of 2014.

Coordinator: David Linsenhardt, 636-3727

FILM SERIES WITH THE HEPBURNS

Dates: Wednesdays, September 4, 11, 18, 25

Times: 1:00—3:30 p.m.

Location: Missouri River Regional Library, 2nd Floor

We celebrate the films of the Hepburns, Katherine and Audrey, both academy award winners and dominant players in the films of the last half of the 20th century.

Week One: Adam's Rib (1949) Katherine and Spencer Tracey are married and as lawyers are pitted against each other in a murder trial. Tom Ewell and Judy Holliday as witnesses help turn this into an excellent comedy.

Week Two: Roman Holiday (1953) Audrey plays a princess who takes a holiday from her palace to enjoy a day in Rome with American reporter, Gregory Peck. She won an Oscar for this, as did the script writer Dalton Trumbo, who was blacklisted at the time.

Week Three: Two for the Road (1967) Audrey and Albert Finney play bickering spouses who reminisce during their vacation in France in an attempt to save the best of their 12 year marriage.

Week Four: On Golden Pond (1981) Katherine co-stars with Henry Fonda who plays a professor tired of being 80 but supported by his wife of many years as they vacation on their family cottage on a lake in Maine. There they are visited by a long-lost daughter, played by Jane Fonda. Both Katherine and Henry earned academy awards for their roles.

Facilitator: Jim Nelson, 635-2662

INTRODUCTION TO GENEALOGY

WALKING TOURS OF JEFFERSON CITY

Dates: October 1, 8, 15, 22

Time: 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon

Locations: See Descriptions Below

(Limited to 30 people)

One of Missouri's show- case months is October and what better time of year to get outside and enjoy the beauty of the season. LIR has the first four Tuesdays in October planned for an offering – Walking Tours of Jefferson City.

Week One: We will gather at the Munichburg Gate on the corner of Dunklin and Jefferson Streets and walk through Old Munichburg with Dr. Walter Schroeder. This will feature Walter's knowledge of the homes and those who lived in them, the businesses and what they were and who ran them along with many memories of this historic neighborhood. The area features some wonderful examples of German style homes and buildings. Dr. Schroeder is the authority on this area of Jefferson City.

Week Two: It is a tour of the old State Penitentiary with Mark Scheiber as our tour guide. Mark is the foremost authority on the history of MSP and will delight all who come to learn of its story and to see first-hand what it looked like "behind the walls!" Gather at the front gate of the old Penitentiary across the street from the new Federal Court House on Lafayette Street.

Week Three: This is a tour of the River Bluffs Collection located at the old women's prison site, the former state surplus building. This building now houses all the historic pieces that go into the state Capitol Museum. As pieces are rotated in and out they are housed here. This tour will be led by the curators of the River Bluffs Collection. It is a fascinating place with many artifacts of treasured history. Gather at River Bluffs Collection (former State Surplus Property Building), 117 North Riverside Drive. Parking lot in front of building.

Week Four: This will be our final session as we walk down East Capitol Avenue with Dr. Gary Kremer. This was the premier area of affluence in early Jefferson City history. Learn more about the homes, buildings, and people of this historic area of our city. Dr. Kremer is a leading authority on this history and area of Jefferson City. Gathering place will be at the Lewis and Clark statues on East Capital between the State Capitol building and Lohman's Landing.

October 8th - the prison tour date - we invite all to stay afterwards for lunch at Prison Brews as a way for fellowship and to enjoy more time together, cost of the lunch on your own.

Coordinators: David Linsenbardt: 573-636-3727 Stephen Buchholz: 573-635-8774

JEFFERSON CITY PUBLIC SCHOOL ACADEMIES: WHAT THEY ARE, HOW THEY WORK

Dates: Tuesday, October 1, 8, 15, 22

Time: 4:00 to 5:30 p.m.

Place: At Jefferson City High School but specific location to be announced

The Jefferson City Public School (JCPS) administration has made clear the academies approach will be adopted at the high school level, regardless of whether they operate one or two high schools. So let us explore them

Week 1: Academies: What are they? Administrators will explain the academies approach to education and how they decided to pursue this method of teaching.

Week 2: Academies in Action. Administrators and JCHS counselors will describe the academies which they have visited and explain how students will decide in which academy they will enroll and how they might take courses that cross academies.

Week 3: Academies in Preparation: JCHS teachers will explain how they are preparing to implement the academies from the teacher's perspective and how teaching in an academies program might modify how some courses would be taught.

Week 4: Academies in JCPS: JCHS teachers will describe how they are planning to incorporate interdisciplinary and project based lessons in the new academies.

Coordinator: Dan Hermann, 573-291-7820

WRITING FOR THOSE WHO WANT TO BUT THINK THEY CAN'T (AND FOR THOSE WHO THINK THEY CAN)

Dates: Wednesdays, October 2, 9, (no class 16), 23, 30

Times: 1:30—3:30 p.m.

Location: Room 8, Soldier's Hall, Lincoln University

Isn't it time to write down some of those family stories you tell and retell to each other that make you laugh, cry, and just reminisce? This short course is designed to assist you in preserving some of those stories, your family's oral history. Future generations will laugh too as they read about Uncle Fred's trip to the zoo when the hippo splattered him, his tie, and his ice cream cone, or about your eccentric aunts, Texas Margie and California Margie, and their ongoing battles over child-raising. You can do it! You can write, and you can enjoy the writing process.

Week One: Short shorts: Stories from your past -- Write what you know

Week Two: Collaboration for the fun of it: An apple a day – the importance of lively description

Week Three: Rhyme & Reason: Literary devices – fine-tuning your writing

Week Four: Sharing your stories – you are a writer!

And if time allows: It's in the Newspaper, So It Must Be True\News, Features, & Letters to the Editor

Presenters: Barbara Maxwell

Facilitator: Marilyn Plassmeyer 573-893-2309

USING GEOGRAPHY TO UNDERSTAND THE WORLD TODAY

Dates: Thursdays, October 3, 10, 17, 24

Times: 1:30—3:30 p.m.

Location: To be announced later

History dominates our schools' social studies curriculum today. However, Geography (not the "states and capitals" variety we usually encountered in our school daze) offers a different method of gaining an understanding of our world today. This course will contrast history and geography as social studies' disciplines; explore the "basic" of understanding from a spatial (geographic) perspective; consider the basic geographic tool of maps; and then look at the world today from a geographic perspective.

Week One: History and Geography

Week Two: Geography is spatial: Spaces, Places, and Regions

Week Three: Maps. All maps are wrong

Week Four: Applying our Knowledge of Geography in Today's World

Presenter: Dan Hermann, retired Teacher, Social Studies Dept., Jefferson City High School

Coordinator: Bryan Norman, 353-6451
